

San Mateo County Times

The Peninsula's Hometown Newspaper

Getting the lead out for Christmas

PARENTS watch as Caroline Cox, in photos at top and right, checks a toy for lead content at the main fire station in South San Francisco on Saturday. The South San Francisco Fire Department, in collaboration with Assemblymember Jerry Hill and the County of San Mateo, hosted a free screening to identify toxic toys to help protect children from the harmful effects of lead.

Staff photos by John Green

